I salute you.

I love you.

I honor you.

Acknowledgement

First, I would love to acknowledge all the haters that have appeared over the years on the Christian Witches Facebook Fan Page, on the YouTube channel, as well as across the internet in blogs and posts and comments and videos. Thank you for spreading the word for us. You have helped us immensely, and surely more than you and I can ever know.

Next I would love to acknowledge all the Christian Witches around the globe who have come to the ascended realization that there is no need to discard either Christ or the Craft when one's soul loves both. I love you for standing up. I love you for being with us on the journey and fueling the global Christian Witches community with your love, presence, comments and perspectives. Your willingness to share your practices, your rituals, your pics of your altars (and so much more!) is a blessing to my Soul. I love you for coming out of the broom closet, no matter how terrifying. I love you for being you, in your own one-of-a-kind Witchy, Magickal way.

I regard Christ as the original Christian Witch and am thankful to walk the path he trod. I would also love to acknowledge all the Christian Witches who have gone before us, who are no longer in a body, whose tall shoulders we stand on, and whom we honor as our spiritual ancestors and forebears. Thank you for forging the path for us, the path we now choose to take wholeheartedly and willfully as our life's direction.

I honor and thank all the Magicians, Witches, Healers, Shamans, Prophets, Sorcerers/Sorceresses, Psychics, Dream Interpreters, Magic Practicing Priests/Priestesses, Astrologists, Numerologists, Wise Men, Wise Women and Kabbalists of the Holy Bible. Thank you for showing us the possibilities.

Foremost I thank Source, the almighty, all-knowing, all-powerful, omnipresent Creator/Creatrix of the Universe which is continuously emanating as every being in existence and as all of existence.

Thank you all!

Hearts on Fire,

Rev. Valerie Love (aka KAISI)

Why I Created This Manifesto

This is A Christian Witches Manifesto, not THE Christian Witches Manifesto. It's important to understand the distinction. This Manifesto was created by a Christian Witch who required clarity. That Christian Witch is me. I harbored a desire to put into writing the essence of the path as it's being walked by this Christian Witch.

This work is titled the Christian Witches Manifesto and not the Christian Witch's Manifesto because I'm choosing to share it with the Christian Witches community, a community I trust and love.

This path is a calling, and I regard it as a high calling. This path is not a religious path. Christian Witches is not a religion.

For me, being a Christian Witch is a spiritual path, and as we know of all spiritual paths, it is UNIQUELY ONE'S OWN. There are no 2 Christian Witches exactly the same, just as there are no 2 humans exactly the same. Every person's path to the divine is unique and led by our Creator.

Many of us walk the same path, yet we're all experiencing it variously, just as many people can walk any major street in any large city, yet all are experiencing the path in their own unique way. There are no 2 Catholics alike, they are no 2 Baptists alike and so on. It may be the same street, yet everyone's walking it according to the beat of their own drum.

Some of us are walking, some are running, some stop to sit on a bench and people watch, while others duck their heads into every store on every street. How you walk any path is completely up to you.

There are no rules and there's no right or wrong way to do it.

For me, paths are about giving us a means and mode of travel (advancement on the spiritual path), or a framework, and become the backdrop — or the context — for the varied experiences of spiritual growth and unfoldment that each of us are individually choosing to have.

It could be said that the path is a map, not the destination. I think too many of us get wrapped up in the path (the map) rather than the destination: GOD. God is inevitable. That's where we all came from, and where we're all headed. Home to SOURCE.

So while I created this Christian Witches Manifesto for myself, and thought that sharing it might be inspiring, this is by no means the only or final Christian Witches Manifesto. In fact, I pray this book sets off a flurry of thousands, or even millions of Christian Witches Manifestos (or whatever each person chooses to call it) being written all over the world.

Your own personal Christian Witches Manifesto can be added to your Book of Shadows (or in some cases, your Book of Light).

Because Christian Witches is not a religion, every Christian Witch in existence could create a Christian Witches Manifesto, and each Manifesto would be true for that person (if written from the core of one's soul and not from the 3rd dimensional surface mind... more on this later).

Every Christian Witch is unique. This we must always remember and honor. We are not seeking soldiers in an army, as do many religions.

This work is also created to inspire each and every Christian Witch to become their own unique, full expression of divinity, and to create their own Manifesto from deep within... the kind of Manifesto that comes forward from the core of one's soul.

I cannot write your Christian Witches Manifesto. However, you can. You can write your own Manifesto of how this path called you, speaks to you, what it's about for you, what it means to you and how you uniquely answer the calling on your life.

Clarity equals power. When I wrote this Manifesto, I found myself in a process of taking many concepts that were floating around in my head and making them firm and clear on the paper before me in an ordered fashion that provided a new level of clarity. It's one thing to have ideas and concepts floating around in one's skull; it's another thing entirely to write them out in an ordered fashion that puts flesh on bones. Taking the time to write a fully fleshed out Christian Witches Manifesto could be a great gift to yourself, providing you with a powerful rudder, a North Star as it were. This is especially so because Christian Witches is NOT a religion, thus we have no dogma or doctrine. This makes it even more imperative to craft your own Manifesto.

I invite you to use this Christian Witches Manifesto in ways that speak to your heart, mind, soul and spirit, and if you are so led, to write your own Christian Witches Manifesto that may speak even more deeply to your psyche (because it came from within your soul).

While this Manifesto is by no means exhaustive, I pray it serves as a guide and an inspiration, or as a tool for clarity, insight and wisdom, and possibly as a North Star on the path of being a Christian Witch.

I encourage you — and applaud and celebrate you If you choose — to write your own Christian Witches Manifesto. To that end, Part 2 of this book contains blank pages so that you can write notes, record insights, aha's, divine ideas, and even draw sigils and sacred symbols. These pages are dedicated to you fleshing out your very own Christian Witches Manifesto, and to re-write it as many times as desired or required. You then may choose to type it out in document form, or you may choose to write it out in your grimoire.

Another potent use for this book is as a magickal implement for an annual ritual that can be undertaken on November 1st (the Witch's New Year) to revisit your manifesto, re-align with who you are in that moment, and re-write it, re-shape it, or simply tune it up.

We change, grow, evolve and transform. That's why I'll be revisiting my Christian Witches Manifesto each year, as a sacred reminder of what's most important to me, and what's real. I pray this work serves you deeply.

Blessed be,

Rev. Valerie Love (aka KAISI)

THE 10 TENETS

The 10 tenets of the Christian Witches Manifesto as practiced by this Witch.

GOD

Tenet 1: GOD/GODDESS/I AM IS SOURCE AND CREATOR.
Though known by many names across the ages and in every culture, I acknowledge this Creator as my Source and the Source of all that is. This is no sky God, nor is God a person. Mother/Father/God is the true Self and the Infinite Unified Field of all reality, seen and unseen. Also known as Love, Source is omnipotent, omnipresent and omniscient. Source expresses as a personal Higher Self to each soul. Source is eminent, imminent and immanent.

Commentary:

Thankfully, I gave up belief in sky gods long ago. The sky god I was raised and reared on was Jehovah, a big dude in the sky who had a book of life. The way I received the story, this dude expected me to damn near bend over backwards to please him. If I didn't make the cut (which most times I did NOT) some kind of retribution was sure... ranging from the guilt of his displeasure or the shame of thinking I did something nasty all the way to obliteration. This is the story as told by Jehovah's Witnesses (who, by the way, don't believe in a burning hell).

YES, this God was serious. Infractions were not tolerated. The continuous expectation to please this god was exhausting. I gave up. Couldn't do it. Didn't want to. I came to the conclusion that possible (or even likely) obliteration sometime in the unknown future was not enough of a threat to stop me from living my life right now the way I wanted to.

I determined that belief in a sky god is dangerous. The worst aspect of any and all beliefs in a sky god is that it artificially separates me from Source, from God/Goddess/I AM that is present in and as me, the reality of me, the reality of all. If I believe ANYTHING other than the TRUTH that Source is immanent as SELF, I will never come to know my true power.

I understand Source is not male or female, nor is Source a person. God is not a person. God IS. GOD IS ALL.

God is love. Love is not some cheesy emotion that's fickle as hell and only cares about me when I'm doing what it wants me to do, and at other times it ravages my soul.

LOVE, TRUE LOVE, is far beyond anything that can be expressed or felt. TRUE LOVE is the basis and ground of all creation and the creative principle itself. GOD IS LOVE. LOVE is the sustaining principle of life, the healer, the way shower, the cosmic order, the providing aspect of the Universe that makes sure everyone and everything is cared for, watched over and headed in its unique divine direction.

God is not a big dude in the sky with a long white beard, nor is Goddess a long-haired white woman wearing robes skipping through the forest.

Anthropomorphisms impede true vision. Because humanity has not been able to successfully wrap its collective consciousness around God (nor will we ever be able to), we have played with mental images of making God into ourselves rather than making ourselves into gods.

God as Source is not something I can wrap my mind around. My mind does not have the capacity to understand God. This is why I do not turn to my consciousness mind to try and figure out God, or connect to God, or understand God.

Thankfully, the true Self IS GOD. Therefore, I have nowhere to travel to come home to Source. I am one realization away from God in my own mind and no distance from God in ultimate reality.

I honor the kinship I feel with Gods and Goddesses, such as Yemaya, Oshun, Shango and more. I understand these are all aspects of Source and not the totality of God, just as the river is an aspect of Source, as is the ocean mother, the sky, the lightning and the whole of existence.

Underpinning all creation is Ultimate Reality: GOD.

There are some who look from the outside in at magickal practice and think that I am praying to Gods and Goddesses rather than praying to the 'one true God.'

I don't pray to anyone or anything other than the one true God, because there is not anyone or anything other than the one true God to pray to.

When I am speaking to the ocean, and calling her Yemaya, I am speaking to God.

When I am speaking to the fire, I am speaking to God.

When I am speaking to the river, I am speaking to the aspect of God that is sweet water known to many as Oshun.

When I am speaking to crystals, I am speaking to God in mineral form.

GOD IS ALL.

God comes to each of us in a personal and visceral experience that each soul understands. God meets all right where we are.

God as 'head spirit' or 'Higher Self' or 'Holy Guardian Angel' is the personal GodSelf to, in and for each individual. This, in a manner of speaking, is a 'personal God' to each soul.

This idea of God as Higher Self takes on many forms across spiritual traditions... in the Yoruba tradition an Orisha rules the 'Ori' (head).

In lightworker circles, this 'personal God' or head spirit is known as the Higher Self, the True Self.

In some magickal traditions, this 'personal God' is the Holy Guardian Angel (HGA).

As with all souls, I have access to spirit guides, archangels, angels, enlightened ancestors, animal totems and a multiplicity of other beings in multiple dimensions, all being aspects of the One.

The Creator is continuously and eternally present to and relating with each and all in multitudinous and varied ways.

Before concluding this commentary on Source, a word on the devil... I do not hold a personal belief in a devil as the archenemy and/or rival of God. Most Witches I know do not fear a devil, nor any of his so-called cohorts. I was taught in fundamentalist Christianity many notions about the devil and his role in misleading mankind and have found these to be fallacies at best and malicious at worst.

I have come to the conclusion that there is no evidence for the devil character as it was told to me.

While there can be no doubt that there are destructive and even nefarious forces in this great big universe, none are tantamount to being the enemy of God nor could possibly be the rival of its Creator. I've come to the same conclusion within myself — after decades of personal study, reflection and meditation — as the Kabbalists: the devil works for God, just like every other being in the universe.

GOD IS OMNIPRESENT. There is no exception.

All beings, including demons, elementals and angels, answer to a higher order. All beings exist in an ordered universe governed by law, created by Source.

There are no rogue characters that do not fit anywhere into the greater order of things. There are no free agents in the universe that can do as they please without consequence. There are built-in consequences everywhere in the cosmos, just as gravity exists on the earth plane for our benefit. Every effect has a cause, and every cause an effect. Action and reaction are two sides of the self-same coin.

There are set boundaries, constraints and habitats for every spirit entity that exists, in heaven, on earth and under the earth.

As a Christian Witch, I have full power and authority to visit and traverse any realm of existence for purposes guided by Higher Self. I commune with angels, demons, elementals and more, just as Christ did.

I am not the consort of the devil. I do not work in league with demons. I am a Witch. They do as I instruct, or there are consequences.

There are no beings that exist that should not be. Everything in this beautiful cosmos exists for a reason, even if the reason is hidden from me. Each entity's reason for being is its divine blueprint for its existence. If there is no purpose, there can be no existence. If a thing exists, it exists for a reason. This is a law of the universe.

As a Witch, an important purpose for which I exist, among many, is to maintain universal order and harmony. Witches are charged by the Goddess as Her emissaries on earth. Witches are keepers of nature, law, and the balance of power. Witches balance and control powerful cosmic forces. This is a Witch's sacred charge. Witches are also the guardians of that which is to be guarded, and Witches are the destroyers of that which is to be no more. Witches guard, protect and serve the crossroads of life and passage to other dimensions, including birth and death. (This is a reason why many Witches are midwives and why Witches can also be found serving those in hospice, as well as souls who are crossing over or souls who have recently crossed over.)

Cosmic law ensures that all beings inhabit their appropriate spheres. If a being is out of its divinely apportioned element (i.e. demonic possession) a powerful Witch, as was Christ, is able to remove this entity from its inappropriate place and return it to its rightful sphere.

As a Witch, I also understand that there are many names of God and each of these names of God carries a very specific and potent energy that can be tapped for power, healing, provision, guidance and more. I honor the names of God used by all religions, tribes and creeds, even if they are different from the names of God I know and call upon. I understand that no name encompasses the All that is God, and that we are not here to argue over God or to attempt to determine which name is right or wrong. We are here as vessels of peace, love and grace.

YE ARE GODS.

“God is love.” - 1 John 4:8 (American Standard Version)

ONENESS

T*enet #2:* ONENESS. There is ONE GOD - SOURCE - expressing as many. There is no separation. The illusion of separation is the only real 'problem' humanity is plagued with. I am one with the One. I am one with all that is. I recognize ALL are ONE with the ONE. God is all that is, seen and unseen. As a Christian Witch, I boldly state, as did Christ, "I and the Father are one." - John 10:30

Commentary:

Religion tried its best to convince me God was somewhere other than where I was, and that I was a lowly sinner who had to make amends with God through the blood sacrifice of Jesus Christ.

This I now know is not true. God is right where I AM. God is ALL, in ALL, as ALL. If God is omnipresent, how could there be a space where God is not?

Religion could not answer that question, even while espousing the omnipresence of God.

By necessity and soul compulsion, I ventured beyond religion for real answers. This is why many turn to a study of the Occult and the Magickal Arts & Sciences... for the answers that religion could not, or would not, provide.

Deep in my soul, even as religion used a multitude of tactics to attempt to force my compliance, I knew the TRUTH: GOD IS RIGHT WHERE I AM.

ONENESS.

This knowing of the inherent oneness of ALL life keeps me from fighting, bickering and separation from anyone, for in truth, THERE IS NO OTHER.

I honor ALL of life, for all of life is me, and I am all of life. This means I honor my Self, my ancestors, teachers, fellow practicing Witches of all traditions, my coven, and my Magickal forebears. I honor my unique spiritual path with my love, care and attention and I honor the faith walks and spiritual paths of all people.

Oneness is my knowing therefore compassion is my religion.

CHRIST

T*enet #3:* CHRISTHOOD. ALL HAVE THE POTENTIAL TO ATTAIN TO CHRISTHOOD. Christ is not a name, but a title. This title refers to the state of enlightenment. It is the experience of full at-one-ment with Source. The term 'Christ' is a term for the full potential of the soul. There are many names for this state of enlightenment, such as Buddha-nature, Samadhi and more. Christ is one way — of many ways — to express or convey a universal concept. As a Christian Witch, I aspire and attain to being a Christ. Yeshua (also known as Jesus) achieved this state of enlightenment, and was one of the greatest Sorcerers of all time.

Commentary:

As a Christian Witch, my greatest aspiration is to become a Christ, an Enlightened One.

Religion taught me that Jesus Christ was one of a kind, the only-begotten son of the Father, and that what he did was peculiar to him. The dogma thrust in front of me contained the concept that I needed Jesus to intervene for me with the Father, and that without Jesus, no one can approach God. I was taught this name is above every other name.

Now I understand that these doctrines, although supposedly based in scripture, are simply not true.

Deep within, I have not ever felt I needed someone to intervene between me and God, even as my conscious mind, taken over by religious dogma, passed on these faulty constructs to others.

Jesus (Yeshua) for me, is a way-shower, a soul who demonstrated to us how to evolve and ascend, just as Buddha did. They, and many others, became enlightened, through their own spiritual unfoldment, and then were compassionate enough to pass on the knowledge and wisdom to countless others so that we could grab the baton and do it for ourselves.

Jesus is not an anomaly. Christ is the true soul potential of everyone. I aspire to be a CHRIST. I do not follow a religion. I am a CHRISTIAN WITCH in that I follow the path of CHRIST. In no way is Christ and magick not aligned, and there has never been, nor will there ever be, any conflict between God and Magick or Christ and the Craft.

We have been led astray. No more.

In the Bible, there's a story of Christ sending out his 12 apostles after a transmission of power. Luke 9:1-2: "he gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to cure sicknesses, 2 and he sent them to proclaim the reign of God, and to heal the ailing." (Young's Literal Translation). This transmission of power is no different than any transmission of magickal energies when initiation takes place in a coven or a lineage of magick. The Master-Aspirant transmission is alive and well in all magickal traditions.

I was told by religion that the message of Christ is: 'be in my religion, come to my church and do as the religion says or else you go to hell.'

Though I can appreciate creativity as much as anyone else, this is not the tenor or tone of Christ's charge to the 12 (and later to the 70). The message he sent them forth to share? As recorded in Luke 10:9, that message is:

"9 and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you." (American Standard Version)

It's clear Christ transmitted power to heal people, not convert people (indeed, there was no religion to convert them to at that juncture). The message is charged with power to restore all to the knowing that the kingdom of God is within.

As I read the Bible, in translation after translation, I find that Christ sent his disciples forth to convey a very specific message: the kingdom of God is within.

This is a VERY simple message. There is no ambiguity. The kingdom of God is within me. I wholly accept this Truth.

I deeply consider the message at Luke 17:21:

“Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.” (King James Bible)

“Neither shall they say: Behold here, or behold there. For lo, the kingdom of God is within you.” (Douay-Rheims Bible)

“Neither will they say, ‘Look, here!’ or, ‘Look, there!’ for behold, God’s Kingdom is within you.” (World English Bible)

It is overwhelmingly clear (even from passages that read ‘the kingdom of God is in your midst’) that there is a closeness, an intimacy, an immediacy of God’s kingdom to each and all.

There are pastors and preachers who will perform exegesis of the scriptures in attempts to tell me what it means.

The masses listen to pastors and preachers, and even quote them verbatim, allowing themselves to be satiated with spoon fed religious dogma and church-approved interpretations of sacred texts. It is my belief that those who are satisfied with being spoon-fed are too lazy and/or fearful to take on a diligent and ruthless examination of truth for themselves.

I choose to “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” - 2 Timothy 2:15 (KJV)

I choose to relentlessly question. I undertake my own soulful rigorous research, with prayerful contemplation and meditation so as to arrive at TRUTH. I am not a spiritual babe. I am not satiated with spoon-fed dogma. I do not accept what I am told with blind faith and ill-won allegiance. I am not a puppet and I will not go quietly into the night.

The age of believing what I AM told is OVER.

The age of mass ignorance and illiteracy is OVER.

Long gone are the days when humans had to rely on learned men reading to us in the town square and taking their word for it.

We now find ourselves deep in the information age; a time in which any subject one desires to research — as intricately and in as much detail as required — is at our fingertips through the magick of the world wide web (which is quickly becoming a compendium of all known human knowledge, akin to a 3rd dimensional version of the Akashic Record).

I solemnly swear to be a thorn in the proverbial side of humanity until we all come home to the TRUTH: Witches and all Magickal Beings are of God's design and creation.

My intention and aspiration as a Christian Witch is clear: to be a CHRIST. I shall not fail nor will I flounder in this heart and soul endeavor.

To consider, contemplate and meditate on:

“I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, if anyone steadfastly believes in Me, he will himself be able to do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these, because I go to the Father.” - John 14:12

“I have no self except the Christ in me.” - A Course In Miracles Lesson 354

NATURE

T*enet #4:* SACREDNESS OF NATURE. Nature is sacred and the body of the Goddess. I remember my Oneness with, and choose to live in harmony with, all aspects of the natural world. I treat nature as self, for indeed, it is myself.

Commentary:

Nature is my church. Nature cannot lie. These I have experienced for myself. Whenever I'm in doubt about what to do, or confused, or meeting up with some issue in my world, I go to Nature. I contemplate Nature and what She is teaching. I know that whatever answers emerge are true.

If I never read another book, I could read Nature and know the very Mind of the Creator. By Law of Correspondence (As Above, So Below) contemplating the leaf gives me divine access to a glimpse of the face of the Goddess Herself.

In our tiny understanding of the Plant Kingdom, we have ascertained, thus far, that plants feed us, clothe us, heal us, inspire us and expand our consciousness. Plants are elegant and powerful teachers. Flowers speak silently as they unfold... 'blossom' they urge, in a beautiful, haunting, non-accusatory whisper.

Yes, the sky above my head, the Earth Mother we all are currently gravitated to, the mountains, the stone, the river, the rock, the stream, the ocean, the wing, the insect, all have much to teach me.

I am here Great Mother Nature. Speak to me. Teach me your secrets, and reveal to me your wisdom, that I may behold the face of my Creator.

To consider, contemplate and meditate on:

“But now ask the beasts, and let them teach you;

And the birds of the heavens, and let them tell you.

8 “Or speak to the earth, and let it teach you;

And let the fish of the sea declare to you.

9 “Who among all these does not know

That the hand of the LORD has done this,

10 “In whose hand is the life of every living thing,

And the breath of all mankind?” - Job 12:7-10

“For ever since the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky. Through everything God made, they can clearly see his invisible qualities — his eternal power and divine nature. So they have no excuse for not knowing God.” - Romans 1:20

DIVINITY

T*enet* #5: INHERENT DIVINITY, SOVEREIGNTY AND CONTINUITY. I am inherently a divine being, holy, pure, innocent and perfect. I am Sovereign. As a Christian Witch, I know I am an immortal soul who chooses to come into a body for purposes known only to this soul and its Creator. When this incarnation is over, the soul lives on, in an infinite continuity of existence.

Commentary:

Though I have been taught that I was born in sin, live in sin and will die in sin, with the death of Christ being my only saving grace, I have come to understand these concepts for the falsities they are.

I am the holy child of God. I am the holy habitation of Source. Inherent divinity is my identity. As a divine being, I am inherently innocent, holy and sanctified, created perfect and whole by a perfect Creator.

In this truth, there is no room for sin. In this truth, there is no room for guilt or shame. These false concepts, that have crippled the minds of the masses, are dispensed with the second I remember my inherent divinity, sovereignty and continuity.

The sooner I come home to the truth of my inherent sinlessness, the sooner I release all pain and suffering.

I do not require a savior. There is nothing to save because there is nothing lost. As I accept my inherent divinity, I see all as divine. God is in all. God is all.

I am a sovereign being. Born free, it is impossible for me to be ruled unless I give away my power. I do not give power to those who would be my enslavers. I am un-ownable. I am free just as all are free. My freedom does not infringe on the rights and freedoms of others.

Nelson Mandela stated that “to be free is not merely to cast off one’s chains, but to live in a way that respects and enhances the freedom of others.” This is how I choose to live.

Personal responsibility for how I use my freedom keeps away undesirable consequences. The laws of life and karma govern all thoughts and deeds. I seek to incur good karma. I do not see karma as a scary monster chasing me. Karma is the rightful return of the energy I send forth. Karma is the harvest of the seeds I plant. Therefore, I daily sow seeds of kindness, compassion, understanding, wisdom, inspiration, creativity and all desirable outcomes. I intentionally send out energy corresponding to what I desire to receive and experience.

I am an infinite being. I am not a body. I am a soul who has a body. When my soul is complete with this body, I will drop it like a hot potato and move on.

When this soul came into a body, the ego was born. The egoic mind run amok without being checked is my only peril. Thus, it is my responsibility to rule my mind.

Reincarnation is a very real spiritual process of elevation and evolution. It is the means the universe uses to continually and lovingly elevate me to God Consciousness, lifetime over lifetime.

As an immortal soul, I have lived many lifetimes. Each has offered me unique lessons, opportunities, experiences and relationships that all serve one purpose: ASCENSION.

FREEDOM

T*enet #6:* FREEDOM. ALL ARE CREATED FREE. I am free. I am free to choose my path, as all are. Each divine being has the power of choice and the freedom to express these choices. Freedom of choice is a gift of the Creator. I do not malign or judge others and I do not judge my own choices. Each choice, and its lawful outcome, is an opportunity for me to learn, grow, expand, evolve and ascend.

Commentary:

Freedom is an inherent right of all. Each and every person is created free in the eyes of the Creator.

Yes, it's true that this inherent freedom is not always expressed. We become limited in mind, body and even spiritually as a result of multiple painful experiences on planet earth. In the experiences, we tend to contract, and forget to expand again. These and other experiences cause limitations, or contractions, in consciousness. If we don't expand again after the contraction, and KEEP expanding, the resulting limitations in consciousness equate to not being able to fully express the freedom that is inherently ours.

As a Magickal Being, I have decided to fully express my inherent freedom. This means I am responsible for casting off all limitations. I cast these limitations off by remembering who I AM... a perfect, divine representation of Mother/Father/God.

FREEDOM IS A MUST for me, spiritually, mentally, emotionally, physically and financially.

[physical and spiritual] captives
And freedom to prisoners...” - Isaiah 6:1-2*

MAGICK

T*enet #7: MAGICK IS A SPIRITUAL PATH.* Magick is a spiritual path of unfoldment. There are many paths on the planet; as many as there are souls on the planet. I choose Magick as a path to remembrance of my inherent power and will and I choose to put these in action according to Right Use of Will. I love Magick. I use Magick for the purposes I am led to by Higher Self. I am committed to mastering Magick as a pathway for ascension.

Commentary:

Magick is an inherent power and energy existing in the Universe, not very much unlike electricity or gravity or dark matter (that is pulling the cosmos apart as we speak). These unseen powers affect us continually, as does Magick. The one who knows how to wield Magick — as did Christ and many other accomplished energy wielders in the Bible and sacred texts the world over — have learned to tap into a vast reservoir of power and thus have come to realize more of their God-nature, omnipotence. I am not purporting that every human being is omnipotent. I am stating that there is an omnipotence inside every being that can be tapped and expressed. Magick is a path to doing just that.

As a Christian Witch, I have the God-given power, right, and ability to tap into Magick, at will, as Christ did. I choose Magick as a spiritual path of unfoldment.

STUDY

T*enet #8: STUDY TO SHOW THYSELF APPROVED.* I study. I take no one's word for it. I am a Witch. I find out things for myself. I study, then apply what I learn so as to gain the WISDOM that is borne solely of practical application. I am no 'armchair magician.' I study, gain understanding, and continually practice what I learn in a dynamic tapestry of growth.

Commentary:

I am amazed at the vast number of people who do not study, especially on matters pertaining to the soul, the most important study we could ever deign to undertake.

To master myself and magick, I have chosen to read, study, take classes, attend retreats and whatever else my soul leads me to that's beneficial for my growth and development as a Christian Witch.

Staying dumb is not an option, spiritually or otherwise. There is nothing that I desire to master that will happen without rigorous study for mastery.

I read to master, not to complete books. I've countless books on everything from spirituality to black magic. I'm a sponge. I don't read to be smarter. I don't read to be a know-it-all. I don't read to learn.

I read to remember what my soul already knows. When I read, or attend a workshop or retreat, there's an emergent resonance that whispers a deep yes. This is why I study... to remember what I already know (on an unconscious level) and to practice it (consciously) for my soul magnificence and for anyone who benefits from this work.

I understand that contemplation, meditation and most importantly application are ways and means for my consciousness to digest what I've read and experience INTEGRATION. Those who read profusely with no integration are spiritually constipated and can spew facts from a very shallow place with no depth or breadth that only comes from practice. Though they may be smart, these individuals will never become masters.

Mastery comes from doing. There are no masters of a craft who have never practiced that craft. There are no masters of a craft who have thought to themselves 'well, I've read a thousand books on this topic, I must be a master!' NO. That does not happen.

I'm a Christian Witch who chooses to practice. Scary as it may be, this is where the proverbial rubber meets the road and where the babes are separated from the grown folks.

I'm not interested in simply learning magick. I'm not interested in reading the most witchcraft books. I'm not interested in going to every witchcraft event wearing the cutest witchy outfit.

I'm fiercely dedicated to becoming a master.

“Carefully study to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth.” -
2 Timothy 2:15 (King James Version)

CODE

T*enet #9:* THE “7 & 9” FORM MY CODE OF CONDUCT. My ‘modus operandi’ is governed and informed by the 7 Hermetic Principles handed down to us from our great Magickal forebears of Ancient Egypt, and the 9 Fruit of the Spirit as outlined in the Holy Bible in Galatians 5:22-23. In harmony with this code, I’ve chosen to take a vow of harmlessness.

Commentary:

I have a code that I do my best to live by.

I adhere to right use of the 7 Hermetic Laws and I commit my way to the Fruit of the Spirit, expressed as 9 divine qualities.

While I practice and walk in love, light and truth, I wholly acknowledge and integrate the darkness. I function just as well in darkness as I do in light. I acknowledge darkness and light as two sides of the same coin that forms all of existence. Like Yin and Yang, I cannot do without one or the other, nor do I deny one for the other, nor do I prefer one over the other, nor do I mistakenly believe that darkness means bad and light means good. Darkness and light are universal energies — with inhabitants in all spheres — that are to be acknowledged, engaged, explored and treated according to the call and path of my soul.

A critical facet of my code is BENEVOLENCE. I am here to be a beneficial presence on the planet. Therefore, service is my holy privilege, right and responsibility. I aspire to serve from a heart full of love. I am deeply thankful for the gifts deposited in my soul from the Creator. I choose to share these gifts of soul magnificence in the most authentic, real, raw and true ways for me.

I choose to commit to AHIMSA. Ahimsa is a sanskrit word for harmlessness (or non-harmfulness). It is known in yogic traditions, as well as in Hindu traditions. This word means more than 'harm none.' It encompasses not even thinking a harmful thought toward anyone or anything, and walking the planet as a powerful beneficial presence.

The whole universe responds to Ahimsa. It is said that if one masters Ahimsa, even the most ferocious and wild animals will be calm and peaceful in this one's presence, which is completely lawful according to the laws of the universe. I am experiencing what I AM. If I am pure harmlessness, I experience harmlessness from everyone and everything.

Ahimsa does not mean naivete, nor does it mean to test fate by being stupid.

Ahimsa entails holiness of thought, word and action toward all. Ahimsa must be, first and foremost, for myself. Ahimsa toward me is the biggest challenge I've met with. To do no harm to myself, even in the most infinitesimal ways, including not even a negative thought about me, has been a beautiful spiritual practice.

I demonstrated this commitment to Ahimsa with a ritual in which I took a vow of harmlessness (though this is not required of Christian Witches or any witch). I undertook this vow solemnly and with a sound and sober mind, knowing that harmlessness entails so much more than simply not causing harm. My vow of harmlessness epitomizes my intention and commitment to be a true benefit to all of life, including all souls in a body and all souls beyond a body.

I took this vow of harmlessness not long after my first initiation as a solitary practitioner. The whole affair was led and overseen by spirit realms, with Higher Self at the helm. I received a new name in the process, and with it, a change in nature. When I embodied this new energy, it catalyzed in me a choice to become a beneficial presence on the planet.

A vow of harmlessness means that I am here to benefit Life. Life recognizes me as beneficial to the WHOLE of life. Because life recognizes me as helpful, I have the support of all life, in the most supernatural, magickal ways. This is how I choose to live, as a beneficial partner and comrade of LIFE.

For me, a vow of harmlessness does not mean that I will never curse or banish or destroy. There are constructive energies in the universe as well as destructive energies. Both are necessary. If we never destroyed anything, everything we've ever created would still be in existence. That would be disastrous.

When looking at nature, I find all manner of destructive energies, from maggots to bacteria to mold to many more than can be named here. All destructive energies in nature work synergistically with the WHOLE of nature. There is nothing in the whole cosmos that is against itself.

I too choose to be in harmony with LIFE, expressed as nature in the physical world and expressed as all energies and entities in spirit realms. There is nothing inherently against me, and I am against nothing. All 'againstness' is created in the egoic mind that only knows the separation of the 5 senses. As a Magickal Being, I live far beyond the 5 senses.

Life loves me and I love life.

LOVE IS THE WAY. The first of the 9 divine qualities (referred to in the Bible as the Fruit of the Spirit) is LOVE. This love is not an emotion. It is AGAPE, the all-encompassing, creative principle of the Universe that continually perfects, heals, feeds, protects, grows and provides for ALL. This is the unfailing LOVE of Mother/Father God. This love does not have to be earned, nor can it be. This love is a divine inheritance. As an inheritance, it belongs to all as children of God.

All I do, I do unto myself. All I give, I give unto myself. Therefore I seek to keep my thoughts, feelings, words and actions wholly aligned with AGAPE LOVE. I love myself. I love all. I love and I am love.

While I practice and aspire to walk in love, light and truth, I wholly acknowledge and integrate the darkness. I function just as well in darkness as I do in light. As a Witch, I adore the darkness of the deep well of the unconscious, the black of the night sky, walks in the woods and the bottomless pools of water I meet along the way. Yes, I love the darkness, and wear it as a cloak when desired.

Simultaneously, I walk in the light. Yin and Yang are two different energies. The Sun and the Moon are two distinct luminaries. I love both. Darkness is not bad, or wrong, nor is light good, or better than the darkness. Both darkness and light simply are.

My code gives me the opportunity to choose to be noble in character and honorable in thought, word and action. I honor myself, my ancestors and the divinity that rules my head, also known as Higher self and/or Holy Guardian Angel. I honor my teachers, fellow practicing Witches of all traditions, my coven, and my Magickal ancestors. I honor my unique spiritual path with awe, love, care and attention. I honor the faith walks and spiritual paths of all people.

I seek to operate according to universal law in everything I set forth to do. The ancient Hermetic principles handed down to us from Egypt (and the pre-Egypt Kemet) inform us that the universe is completely lawful, and not random. If a magickal being masters the laws of the universe, this magickal being masters all.

To consider, contemplate and meditate on:

“...for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth...” - Ephesians 5:9 (World English Bible)

“In my defenselessness my safety lies.” - A Course In Miracles Lesson 153

RITUAL

T*enet #10: RITES AND RITUALS.* I am fed and deeply moved by my rites and rituals, especially my daily spiritual practice which energizes me spiritually, mentally, emotionally and physically. By my daily rituals of prayer, meditation, chanting, yoga, breath work and more, I live INSPIRED and maintain clear open channels to spirit realms from which angels, spirit guides and ancestors speak to me clearly, guiding me on my true path. My moon cycle rituals remind me of my oneness with the cosmos and that life is so much bigger than me. My magickal rites and rituals keep me in a magickal mindset and way of being so that I never forget the truth that I am not a muggle, but a powerful Witch.

Commentary:

The power of rites and rituals for a Witch cannot be overstated. When the path of the Witch is embarked upon, there is an initiation. There may be many more initiations along the path. These initiations serve manifold purposes.

My initiations, among much else, have served to focus the vast energetic resources of the subconscious mind on the magickal path and to baptize the consciousness in the Magickal Arts and Sciences.

Rites and rituals include naming ceremonies and re-naming ceremonies. Over the many years and many lifetimes I have walked the earth as a Witch, I have received many initiations and many names, some of which are never spoken to others.

Rites and rituals deeply move a Witch to the core, touching the soul.

My daily rituals include prayer, meditation, chanting, yoga, breath work and being in nature. Monthly rites and rituals include New Moon Creation Rites and Full Moon Release Rites. Annual rituals include a Dumb Supper on All Hallow's Eve, celebration of Resurrection Sunday, my birthday rites, celebration of the day out of time, Kwanzaa celebrations and more. Other rituals include Tarot readings and astrological alignment.

Practicing rites and rituals strengthens my character and deepens in me the installation of those core principles I choose to embrace, such as responsibility, discipline, order, harmony and more.

Rites of passage serve as energetic bridges, safely and powerfully conveying me from one space to another, while also serving as acknowledgement that I've grown or endured a trial that has landed me in a whole new world.

Rites and rituals can be utilized to bring order out of chaos, align the body and mind with the soul and spirit, and marshal powerful forces.

My magickal operations are undertaken in a state of being that is potentized by the rites and rituals required for that magickal operation, including preparation of materials to casting the circle to the magickal operation itself, clear through to the completion of the same. I honor these rites and rituals and do not rush, edit or omit for expediency. I understand expediency is not my friend and that each rite and ritual serves a powerful purpose. Duly devoting the time, energy and resources required for each magickal operation speaks volumes about how I comport myself as a Witch and profoundly impacts the results I can expect.

As a Christian Witch, I am well aware that the Bible is full of rites and rituals. I am free to use any of these Biblical practices as the spiritual framework for the creation of my own rites and rituals that feed my soul and soar my spirit.

I AM A WITCH who chooses to live and practice by RITES and RITUALS as the spiritual underpinning of all I do.
